Next Generation of Fiduciary Standards By Kribbit I believe that Don Trone is one of the fathers of Fiduciary Standards much like Markowitz is the father of Modern Portfolio Theory. He partners with Lowenhaupt in this book to establish a set of Wealth Management Standards for individual and family wealth. I applaud the task they undertook because so often when people think of fiduciary responsibility they think of retirement plans or large institutions. If I were one of these individuals or families, I would want this kind of oversight, service and attention paid on my assets. The book itself is a quick and easy read, and the information will be absorbed. Anyone with wealth or anyone managing wealth should take the time to read this book. Fiduciary responsibility and status is front page financial news these days, this book is a great way to stay ahead of the curve!

2 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Charles Lowenhaupt is the guru of private wealth! By Michael Loynd This book is a must read for all families and stewards of private wealth. FREEDOM FROM WEALTH avoids the typical data dump, and enlightens through insightful stories from two of the leaders in private family wealth. Charles Lowenhaupt has been an international guru of private wealth management and family offices for years. A Harvard grad from three generations of family wealth planners, Mr. Lowenhaupt offers a higher level of thoughtfulness and scope than any others in the field. He has a way of simplifying even the highest concepts and grounding us in the fundamentals that we so often overlook. What is the wealth for? FREEDOM FROM WEALTH is a must have in any private wealth manager's library. And don't just stick it on a shelf, keep it close to your desk where you can access it regularly.

Proven strategies for meeting the uniquely and increasingly complex challenges of private wealth management Whether you're a money manager or managing your own wealth, Freedom from Wealth provides the tools you need to improve the management of a family fortune in today's increasingly globalized financial landscape. The authors reveal new, global, measurable standards to ensure that wealth is managed in accordance with industry best practices. They call for families to adopt the standards and name a Standards Director who can oversee their implementation, arguing that these standards help prevent the fraud and financial chicanery that produced the Madoff scandal and other recent wealth-management improprieties. Charles A. Lowenhaupt is the founder, chairman, president, and CEO of Lowenhaupt Global Advisors and a managing member of Lowenhaupt Chasnoff, LLC, the first U.S. law firm to concentrate in tax law, which was established by his grandfather in 1908. Donald B. Trone is the CEO of Strategic Ethos and former Director of the U.S. Coast Guard Academy Institute for Leadership. In 2003, he was appointed by the U.S. Secretary of Labor to represent the investment counseling industry on the ERISA Advisory Council.
