

[Free download] Leading Coherently: Reflections From Leaders Around the World

Leading Coherently: Reflections From Leaders Around the World

Nancy Stanford-Blair, Michael H. Dickmann
DOC | *audiobook | ebooks | Download PDF | ePub

DOWNLOAD

+

READ ONLINE

#3643330 in eBooks 2005-02-10 2012-07-03File Name: B00YFR6BUM | File size: 59.Mb

Nancy Stanford-Blair, Michael H. Dickmann : Leading Coherently: Reflections From Leaders Around the World before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Leading Coherently: Reflections From Leaders Around the World:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. great read wonderful snippets of wisdomBy Ferrisburgh S.I very much enjoyed reading this for a course on leadership at UVM. This was a wonderful selection firstly because it didn't focus on the "well-marketed" leaders, but rather on people who had been identified by their peers as leaders. I also enjoyed the extreme readability of the book because it was based on the human experience and not just filled with edu-speak. Finally, the focus questions at the end of the chapters really helped me to reflect on my experiences with leadership, which was the point of the book.

Leading Coherently draws insight from 36 exemplary leaders to describe a natural and potent relationship between leadership formation, performance, and sustainability. Through sharing their leadership stories, leaders from across the globe reveal prominent themes about how leaders are formed to the role of influencing others toward the achievement of goals. Leaders also reveal how leaders perform such influence on others, and how leaders sustain themselves and their leadership influence over time and adversity.

About the Author Nancy Stanford-Blair is a professor in the Department of Educational Leadership and the Leadership Center at Cardinal Stritch University in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. She also serves as a leadership, learning, and development consultant to education, corporate, and service organizations. Michael Dickmann is a professor in the Department of Educational Leadership and the Leadership Center at Cardinal Stritch University in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He also serves as a leadership, learning, and development consultant to education, corporate, and service organizations. He is coauthor (with Nancy Stanford-Blair) of Leading With the Brain in Mind: 101 Brain-Compatible Practices for Leaders (Corwin Press 2003) and the second edition of Mindful Leadership (Corwin Press 2008).