I highly recommend it especially to young people before they get into financial trouble. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A Christmas present By Marcia's musings The recipient was so enjoyed a class taught by M. Bell that he requested the book and I added the workbook

Great for small groups, ideal for premarital counselling and as a wedding gift. This workbook leads you deep in the bible and guides you step-by-step through principles and practices to help you remove financial stress, and gain confidence handling finances. You will develop disciplines to control key variables that cause you to spend. You will learn you do not need to know or like math to stay on top of your financial affairs. And most of all, you will see clearly how to stop living pay-check-to-pay-check.

I went to bed reading my workbook and just could not put it down. What I really like too is that it can be used with or without the DVD. Very well written material - you did a great job. --Jennie Powell
About the Author
In December 1985, after a two year journey to show his twelve year old daughter Christianity was for uneducated, feeble minded folks, Michel A. Bell surrendered his life to Jesus Christ. Married to Doreen in 1970, they have two children and four grand children. Michel and Doreen have lived in Jamaica, Japan, the United Kingdom, and the USA. Today they live in Ontario, Canada. Michel held many senior finance, strategy, and planning positions in the Alcan Inc. group, including Regional Vice President Finance and Legal for Alcan s Pacific subsidiary and Chief Financial Officer for Alcan s worldwide bauxite and alumina group. In July 2002, after an exciting, enjoyable, and productive 32-year career, he left Alcan as Vice President Business Planning for this group to become full-time president of the private, Christian, non charity organization, Managing God's Money, which he started five years earlier. Named an Alfred P. Sloan Fellow in 1975, he holds a Masters of Science degree in Management from the Sloan School of Management at Massachusetts Institute of Technology (M.I.T). He is a Fellow of the Chartered Certified Accountants of the UK and has authored five books.
