(RLE: Organizations): A Critical and Empirical Understanding of Power in Sociological Theory and Organizational Life (Routledge Library Editions: Organizations):

This volume presents a critical analysis of sociological theorizing and power which enables the reader to grasp fully the nature of power, rule and domination in organizational life. By making use of the discussions he recorded at a construction site, the author brings the reader into contact with the everyday social world in which he locates his analysis of power and authority at both a structural and phenomenological level. This analysis is complemented by the author's review of the literature on 'theorizing'; by writers such as Wittgenstein, Blum, McHugh, Phillips and Cicourel; his examination of the 'community power debates' between authors such as Bachrach and Baratz and Dahl; and a survey of the literature on power in its organizational aspects by Weber, Simmel and the more contemporary work of Hickson.
