Mark A. Nadler, Terry Rumker : Real World Personal Finance before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Real World Personal Finance:

Personal Finance for the Real World teaches the basics of personal finance by involving the reader in various financial exercises and eventually constructing a personal financial plan. Users not only track their spending for a month, but also set personal financial goals and incorporate them into a realistic budget. This book also teaches time-value of money calculations, which enable readers to calculate their necessary monthly savings in order to reach targeted investment goals. This book conducts a thorough review of credit, complete with strategies to pay off credit card and other forms of debt. It features discussions on student debt as well, with particular attention to appropriate pay-down strategies and the financial payoffs to different academic majors. Personal Finance for the Real World immerses users in real and purposeful financial activities, while teaching personal finance vocabulary and encouraging readers to take seriously the financial side of their lives.

Having Real World Personal Finance in your hands is like having a wealth-building coach at your side. In an approachable and conversational style, authors Mark A. Nadler and Terry Rumker walk readers through the vital processes of assessing current financial status and setting clear, motivating financial goals. In true coaching style, any and all excuses are challenged and constant encouragement is given to take strategic action today to build a solid financial future. Financial terms are demystified and crucial financial calculations are explained step-by-step with examples that come right out of daily life. Sage advice is given for developing skill in financial decision-making throughout life and avoiding costly financial errors, especially in the investment market. For those wanting to take charge of their financial future, Real World Personal Finance serves as a handbook for financial success. (Deanna L. Sharpe, University of Missouri) About the Author Terry E.
